The Rev; James Dempster,s Record of Marriages and Baptisms in vicinity of Tryon County
1778-1803.

In an old record book of the Rev; James Dempsters who labored in Tryon County,we find the accompanying list of marriages and baptisms.

The volume is an old leather covered book,9 x 7-1/2 in in dimensions,and bears the date of friday Dec;23 1768,with the words "Joel Dempsters book 1805" it also gives the date of the Rev; James Dempster,s death,

Official acts are here recorded as performed in some thirty villages and hamlets,embracing a wide territory,

According to a note,the Rev; James Dempster was born in Edinburgh,Scotland,oa Sept;21,1740,and died in the town of Florida,Montgomery Co; N.Y. on May 10th; 1804, the words "servant of God well done" were to be inscribed on his tombston

The first thirty-two pages were doubtless devoted to sermon notes,as there is the conclusion of a sermon on page 32, the first thirty-one pages are missing,but fortunately the records are intact,there are records of business transactions scattered through the book as well.

The baptisms and marriages cover the years 1773-1803 the last year antedating St. John's church (Johnstown) parish records by twelve years, and beginning only four years after the death of Sir William Johnson, Bart.

Mr Dempster was a Scotch Minister of note whose ancestral seat was Edinburgh, Scotland. He settled in the town of Florida, in Tryon County N.Y. withdrawing from the established church of Scotland he joined ~~the~~ Wesleys, his son, the Rev. John Dempster was a missionary in Argentina,

Mr Dempster performed official acts in Warrensborough, Charlestown, Schenectady, Saratoga, Johnstown, and a number of the smaller places in the vicinity, such as Jersey Bush, Warlettsbus, Parsons Bush etc;

The original record book is now in possession of a descendent of Mr Dempster, and was loaned for the purpose of having a copy made of the records, to insure preservation,

The marriages were copied as they appear in the original records, the baptisms have been arranged in alphabetical order according to the baptismal names of the infants, in the original, From that copy the following copy was made by:-
